

WHAT'S NEW IN LOUISIANA 2022

Louisiana is a Trip!

TAMMANY TRACE BIKE TRAIL

A wildlife conservation corridor that links isolated parks, historic landmarks, and wetlands, the trail affords close views of the natural habitat, providing unbroken access via 31 bridges built on the original railroad trestles. Get outdoors on the 31-mile rails to trails for hiking, cycling with a separate equestrian pathway suitable for horse riding.

THE NEW LFT

The new terminal opened in January 2022. With 120,000 square feet with five departure and arrival gates, passengers will have access to local food and drinks. The rotunda area is equipped with Sage Glass, which tints automatically depending on the angle of the sun, providing a view of the airfield.

MAISON MADELEINE

Built-in the 1840s, and on the National Register of Historic Places, the B&B is nestled among lush gardens on the shores of Lake Martin, a hidden gem that boasts one of the largest wading bird rookeries in North America. The nearby small town of Breau Bridge is one of the cultural centers of Acadiana and the heartland of the inviting Cajun way of life.
